- Detailed packing list in English
- Letter from Ministry of Foreign Affairs for exemption from the payment of Customs duties (diplomats)
- Copy of diplomatic card (diplomats)
- Letter of authorization / undertaking

Specific Information

- All documents must be in place prior to shipment arrival.
- Without a residence visa or passport, shipments will not be cleared, nor will the shipping line release shipment.
- Import shipments may be intensively inspected by Customs authorities with charges incurred.
- The importation of household goods and personal effects into the UAE is exempted from Customs duties.
- If any prohibited items are found during the Customs inspection, severe punishment will be imposed including fines, imprisonment, or both. All import duties are charged based on the costs, insurance, and freight (CIF) value of the shipment.
 - All import duties are charged at 5% of the value of the item.
- Do not send insurance or any other documents showing the true value of the goods with the shipment to avoid the payment of heavy customs duties.

- It takes approximately 4 - 7 work days for sea shipments, 3 - 5 days for air shipments.
- All sea shipments coming into Jebel Ali port are subject to approximately 5 - 7 days at port with free port storage and demurrage charges (depending on the shipping line).
- Shipments not cleared within 10 days from the arrival date at the port will not have a free port storage period granted and the shipment will attract port charges from the first day of arrival.
- Shipments that arrive before the weekend will automatically lose two days of Customs clearance and the shipment can become more susceptible to incurring port storage charges.
 - Please note that Friday / Saturday is a weekend in Dubai and for Dubai Customs.
 - Hence, no customs clearance and inspection can take place during these two days.
- Shipments are also susceptible to demurrage charges; however, they will only start incurring after the fifth day of shipment arrival.
